Scope

This collection is comprised of publications authored by noted researcher and professor, Thomas D. Lyon, J.D., Ph.D. Dr. Lyon is professor of Evidence, Law and Psychology, and Child Interviewing in the University of Southern California Law. He has been studying child witnesses and child maltreatment for over two decades. His publications are among the most influential in the areas of children's memory, disclosure, witnessing, and testifying.

Organization

This collection is not complete; even so, it currently contains close to 60 publications. They are arranged here in date descending order – the most recent publications appearing first. More information and most of the articles can also be obtained in the Child Abuse Library Online and at the following: <http://works.bepress.com/thomaslyon/>
